

Director's Report – February 2017
Joy Neal, Director

Library:

Circulation for February 2463. Patron count was 2459. We had 300 uses of the computers. We made 9 new library cards. We had 61 people attend library programs.

We had Legos in the library on the 28th

Tech nights were held on the 1st, 8th, 15th and 22nd

We were closed on the 6th due to the snow storm.

Our new quarterly newsletter was available on the 14th.

Staff:

Our Youth Services person, Susan Seefeldt, started on the 1st of February. We have had a great turnout for the weekly story times. First order of business is the Summer Reading Program.

We had a staff meeting on the 22nd.

Community:

Attended the Kiwanis meetings on the 1, 8, 15 and 22nd.

Bryan and I did a session of after school sewing classes for the school. A short set of three classes with four students. We used the middle school library and ran them on the 9th, 16th and 23rd.

Susan M and I meet with Peg Seeling, Sup. of the school district. She is eager to see kids involved in the Summer Reading Program and will allow us to use the gym for some of our special guests this summer.

I attended the Friends of the Library meeting on the 20th and took Susan S. along so they could meet her.

The Skagit Library Directors had a meeting on the 10th at the Burlington Library. No Mt Vernon librarian hired yet.

Other:

I attended the SIHRMA meeting on the 16th.

I attended the Library Foundation meeting on the 23rd.

I was interviewed for Speak Up, Speak Out radio program on the 27th. Not sure when it will be aired.

I worked as a cashier for FiberFest (Quilt Museum event) on Saturday the 25th.
