

Director's Report – September 2018

Joy Neal, Director

Library:

Circulation for September 1,932. Patron count was 2,072. We had 205 uses of the computers. We had 10 new library cards. 25 people attend library programs.

Tech nights were held on September 5,12,19, and 26.

Legos @ the Library was Sept 25.

Sept. 23-29 was Banned Books Week.

Staff:

Katryna attended a STEM workshop in Everett on the 19th. She received a free kit that can be used with pre-school and elementary students to expose them to STEM.

Katryna will be starting trips to the preschools in October. Her weekly story times have been small since most of the kids have moved on into preschool.

Aslan's last day was Sept 26th.

Nancy submitted her notice and her last day was Sept. 24th.

To make up for the loss of the two employees, Katryna and Mat have taken on more hours. Gem is working two Saturdays a month and some hours during the week.

Community:

I attended the SIHRMA meeting Sept 13th. It was a review of the new employment laws. The SIHRMA Fall workshop will be October 11 and focus on the new paid family and medical leave act set to affect us come January 1.

I attended the FOL meeting on the 17th.

I attended the Kiwanis breakfasts on September 5, 12, 19 and 26. There was an installation of new officers on Sept. 22nd with a potluck lunch.

Other:

I read Book Reviews for KSVR September 25.

My book club read "The Soul of an Octopus" and is excited to meet the author on October 7th.
